

Tuckean Site 4 water quality – July 2017

Data logger located in Tuckean Swamp, Northern NSW

Notes

- Due to a fault the logger ceased recording in February and a fault in the new replacement equipment required it to be sent back to the USA for repair. The new equipment has since been received back and installed at North Creek to replace faulty equipment which when repaired will then be installed at Site 4.